

7 April 2008

CHEN Deming
Minister of Commerce
The People's Republic of China

Your Excellency,

I have the honour to refer to the conclusion on this date of the Free Trade Agreement between the Government of New Zealand and the Government of the People's Republic of China ("the Agreement").

I also have the honour to refer to the discussions held in the context of the negotiation of the Agreement on the subject of a Working Holiday Scheme between New Zealand and China and our decision to establish a scheme as set out in the Arrangement on a Working Holiday Scheme between the Government of New Zealand and the Government of the People's Republic of China, signed on 7 April 2008 at Beijing.

I propose that this letter and your reply will constitute a record of the joint understandings of our two Governments reached in connection with the Agreement.

Yours sincerely,

Phil Goff
Minister of Trade
New Zealand

Dear Minister,

I have the honour to refer to the conclusion on this date of the Free Trade Agreement between the Government of the People's Republic of China and the Government of New Zealand ("the Agreement"), and to your letter of the same date which reads as follows:

"I have the honour to refer to the conclusion on this date of the Free Trade Agreement between the Government of New Zealand and the Government of the People's Republic of China ("the Agreement").

I also have the honour to refer to the discussions held in the context of the negotiation of the Agreement on the subject of a Working Holiday Scheme between New Zealand and China and our decision to establish a scheme as set out in the Arrangement on a Working Holiday Scheme between the Government of New Zealand and the Government of the People's Republic of China, signed on 7 April 2008 at Beijing.

I propose that this letter and your reply will constitute a record of the joint understandings of our two Governments reached in connection with the Agreement."

I have the honour to confirm that your letter and this reply constitute a record of the joint understandings of our two Governments on the Arrangement on a Working Holiday Scheme between the Government of the People's Republic of China and the Government of New Zealand, reached in connection with the Agreement.

Yours sincerely,

CHEN Deming
Minister of Commerce
The People's Republic of China
